

HERO TOO LONG (2023)

Seems the closer I'd get the further I'd fall
And if that wasn't all I was fallin' for you
But if that's what it takes and if these are the breaks
Spare me the heartaches; I've been a hero too long.

And if it wasn't that great, if you just couldn't wait
Then my biggest mistake was lookin' over at you
God only knows how it comes then it goes
And what happens to those who stay heroes too long

Do what you will do now
Cos I'm standin' up tall where I once fell
Do, oh do your damndest now
Cos I'm safe sittin' here in our wishin' well.

They say time will erase what it cannot replace
But I still see your face lookin' out from my dreams
So if it's over and done and if you're not the one
Why am I still on the run after all of these years?

Do what.....

Seems the closer I got, the further I fell
And if truth were to tell
I'm still fallin' for you.

CAN'T BELIEVE IT

Can't believe it
Y'know that I can't believe it
Said that I, I can't believe that your love is real

Spent my time mostly thinkin
'bout my life mainly whisky drinkin'
And I feel I have ditched these ways today
Whole world is changing
Seems like it's slowly rearranging
And I am certain that you chased all my troubles away

Can't believe....

Don't understand no more
This new buzz I never felt before
Maybe you're right and I should lay down here by your side
Feel I could fly and I feel I could
Hop-scotch all across the sky
If you'd come on along, come on along for the ride

Can't believe....

Dreams and schemes and other less important things
Have pulled me under, brought me down
Since we been walking and endlessly talking
Seems like I have been set free

Instrumental

Dreams and schemes.....

Badoobedoop doop
Badoobedoop doop
And I

Can't believe....

JEALOUSY

Jealousy buildin' up so wildly
Twisted truth, tortured lies
Jealousy burstin' out for all to see
There to be scandalised

Batten down, go to ground
Temperature starts to rise
Lightning flash, thunder crash
Storms clouds race through your eyes

Jealousy.....

Raging flame, fires your brain
Nothing to do but to obey
Razor sharp, torn apart
With every word that you say

Jealousy.....

Tsunami, brush all sense aside
Tsunami, swallowed by the tide
Tsunami, sweep everything away
Tsunami, devastation and debris

Instrumental

Tsunami, brush all sense aside
Tsunami, swallowed by the tide
Tsunami, sweep everything away
Tsunami, devastation (devastation), devastation and debris

Chorus

Jealousy
Jealousy
Jealousy
Jealousy
